

Our Greatest Need

J. I. Packer reminded us in his book, Knowing God, that the greatest need of the evangelical church was to think big thoughts about our Triune God and to know him in all of his perfection, glory, and majesty.